Dear Senator McCain,

I urge you to tell the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) not to weaken the rules that help preserve competition and diversity among the owners of America's newspapers and radio and TV stations

Americans need more diverse sources of news, information, and viewpoints--not less

I am absolutely appalled at this FCC proposal.

What's worse--the public knows very little about this FCC debate already because the media is already so mega-biased and prepared to lie, hide, and distort! Please do not allow the awful corporate media any more venue to lie to the American people

I am also worried that less sources, means less ways to alert the public about local news, even emergencies! Big companies tend to prefer automated phonelines over real people. It's disgusting and must not be allowed!

As you know, the FCC is reviewing rules currently for media ownership and is likely to allow big corporations to dominate ownership of media in a particular city or town. If that happens, one company may be allowed to own the local newspaper, several TV and radio stations and the cable TV system in the same community. There would be fewer owners of networks, stations and newspapers nationwide.

Media ownership would be concentrated among fewer companies and the public's ability to have open, informed discussion with a wide variety of viewpoints would be compromised. Plus, it likely would result in higher costs for businesses that advertise in local media, and those costs likely would be passed onto consumers

The FCC is expected to vote on whether to change the rules on June 2. The public comments submitted to the FCC by individuals have been opposed to media consolidation overwhelmingly. Americans understand that the public interest is not being served by deregulation that reduces competition

Please tell the FCC to reinstate its traditional media ownership rules for the sake of competition and democracy

Thank you

Sincerely,

Dear Chairman Copps,
Dear Chairman Adelstein,

You are awesome! Thank you for your tireless and frustrating work in bringing this vitally important issue to the attention of the American people. What the 3 majority chairmen have done is a travesty against the public interest and good. You, and Chairman Copps, have fought a brave and good fight for your country, no less than our veterans who fought on the battlefield.

You stood against the interests of the mega wealthy media conglomerates who seek to amass more power and wealth irregardless of the negative impact on the quality of life in America, the quality of public discourse, and the vitality of our democracy itself.

My son is majoring in political science at Tufts University. I have told him what you have been able to accomplish and held you up as a model of public service that he should emulate. You are a beacon of social conscience.

Sincerely,
Olga Guerra

Dear Senator McCain,

I urge you to tell the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) not to weaken the rules that help preserve competition and diversity among the owners of America's newspapers and radio and TV stations.

As you know, the FCC is reviewing rules currently for media ownership and is likely to allow big corporations to dominate ownership of media in a particular city or town. If that happens, one company may be allowed to own the local newspaper, several TV and radio stations and the cable TV system in the same community. There would be fewer owners of networks, stations and newspapers nationwide.

Media ownership would be concentrated among fewer companies and the public's ability to have open, informed discussion with a wide variety of viewpoints would be compromised. Plus, it likely would result in higher costs for businesses that advertise in local media, and those costs likely would be passed onto consumers.

The FCC is expected to vote on whether to change the rules on June 2. The public comments submitted to the FCC by individuals have been opposed to media consolidation overwhelmingly. Americans understand that the public interest is not being served by deregulation that reduces competition.

Please tell the FCC to reinstate its traditional media ownership rules for the sake of competition and democracy.

Thank you

Sincerely,

Dear Senator McCain,

I urge you to tell the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) not to weaken the rules that help preserve competition and diversity among the owners of America's newspapers and radio and TV stations

As you know, the FCC is reviewing rules currently for media ownership and is likely to allow big corporations to dominate ownership of media in a particular city or town. If that happens, one company may be allowed to own the local newspaper, several TV and radio stations and the cable TV system in the same community.
